YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"I Ask Her What She Bought"

Dear Ann Landers: No problem — just a question. My wife's pet hobby is spending the day going through antique shops. I'm not complaining, mind you — she's a sensible person and never spends more money than she should. But almost every evening when I ask her what she did during the day she replies "I went antique shopping." I ask her what she bought — and she says "Nothing."

Why do women call it shopping if they don't buy anything? — MERE MAN

Dear Mere: Have you ever heard of men who go fishing? Well — same thing.

Dear Ann Landers: I've gone steady with a boy ever since we were both seniors in high school. He always wanted to be a doctor and told me it would be a long wait before we could marry.

For the last three years we have been planning to get married next June. Last night he announced that marriage is out of the question until he finishes medical school. This will be in the spring of 1963.

I love him and I know he loves me. He's a wonderful guy but I don't want to wait another two years. How can I prove to him that it could work? — STUMPED

Dear Stumped: In most medical schools, about 50 per cent of the students are married. If your boy friend wanted proof that it could work all he has to do is look around.

If you are unwilling to wait, date others and invite him to be the same. By the Spring of 1963 check back to see if he's still unattached . . . if YOU are, that is.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I have been happily married for four years. We both have good jobs, a nice home, and (so far) no children.

Last night my husband brought home a letter he had received at work. It was from a girl he used to go with many years ago. She says he is the father of her 11-year-old daughter and she'd like him to come to their city (about 100 miles from here) and get acquainted. She also said she took the child to my husband's mother's home twice last month and my mother-in-law said the child was darling and "a picture of her daddy."

I am so upset I don't know what to do. I asked my husband if he was the father and he said he doesn't think so. The fact that he brought me the letter gives me added confidence in him. What should we do? Please help. — JUST SHOCKED

Charles S. Murawskis Are Now Established in Bell

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart Murawski are now at home at 6616 Walker Ave., Bell, Calif. The couple were married on April 22 at the Temple City Christian Church. Mrs. Murawski is the former Sharon Raye Wisham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wisham, 2023 Arlington Ave., Torrance. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murawski of Arcadia.

Rev. Dennis Savage officiated at the double ring candle-light ceremony. Nuptial music was provided by Carol Montgomery, organist, and Mary Lou Savage, soloist.

Mr. Wisham escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin detailed with a scoop neckline, long sleeves and full skirt which fell into a chapel train. A crown of seed pearls and sequins fashioned as a Juliet cap held the full illusion veil. The bride's bouquet was of white butterfly orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Betty Ford was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Peggy Hammond, Jane Hammond, Carolyn Beam and Mrs. Barbara Caruso. All wore gowns of aqua chiffon over taffeta and carried white parasols filled with pink roses and carnations.

Carol Murawski, in a full length chiffon gown was flower girl, and the rings were carried by Gregg Byrum.

Joseph Saporito was best man and the 250 guests were seated by Walter Murawski, Jr., Damon Wisham, Joseph Mustacchio and Dan Rancourt.

Mrs. James Dobson was in charge of the guest book at the reception held at the church. Family members were entertained at dinner at the home of the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hammond.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High in 1958. She attended Adrian's Modeling school.

Her husband, a Temple City High graduate, class of 1957, attended Pasadena Junior College.

Y-Teen Sales

Hi-Debs Y-Teen from South High School (sophomore group) will hold rummage and bake sales at the YWCA building from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, May 27.

Victoria Hinshaw Becomes Bride of Lawrence Steele

Crenshaw Christian Church in Inglewood was the setting for the mid-afternoon wedding on Sunday, May 21, uniting Miss Victoria Hinshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meral Hinshaw, 2467 W. Carson St. and Lawrence Jay Steele. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Steele, 718 W. 181st, Gardena.

As the 150 guests assembled, Louis Kindelberger, at the organ, played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied Marge Gibson who sang "At Dawning", "If I Could Tell You" and "O Perfect Love".

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown was of peau de soie over ivory satin fashioned with a bateau neckline and Chantilly lace over skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil cascaded from a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Bridesmaids were Misses Marilyn Voorhees and Patricia Hoyem. Their dresses were also of the emerald green peau de soie and each carried a basket of daisies.

James Steele performed the duties of best man and serving as ushers were Niel Coke and Gordon Hinshaw.

Dr. Joseph M. Applegate, pastor of the Crenshaw Christian Church, officiated at the vow exchange.

A reception followed at the church with Miss Joyce Wayt presiding at the guest book. Relatives and close friends were entertained at a dinner at the home of the bride's parents.

After their honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead, the newlyweds will be at home in Gardena.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School, class of 1957, and El Camino college.

Her husband, also an El Camino college graduate, was a member of the Inglewood High class of 1957.
